

Family/Divorce Financial Mediation

8th Judicial District Court

Mediation is a process in which the parties in a dispute attempt to work out an agreement that will be a useable solution for all parties involved in the matter

Mediation is available in all counties for the 8th Judicial District Court.

Any of the District Court Judges or Hearing officers for the Court can order mediation. Parties can request financial mediation by filling out a form 4A-204

<https://eighthdistrict.nmcourts.gov/wp-content/uploads/sites/62/2023/11/4A-204.pdf>

Financial Mediation is held through the Court's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) program. The mediators in that program are trained to assist in resolving issues regarding financial matters.

<https://eighthdistrict.nmcourts.gov/services-programs/alternative-dispute-resolutions-adr-services/>

