USE NOTES

1. This form may be used anywhere in this state to enter a default judgment and final decree of dissolution of marriage when the parties do not have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school.
2. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Whether property is separate or community is a complicated issue. There can be serious consequences, including tax consequences, for the division of property and for not properly transferring property, including retirement accounts. You may need separate documents to transfer divided property.
3. To transfer land, a building or a home other than a mobile home, the parties must prepare, sign and record a deed in the real property records where the property is located. To transfer a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.
4. If both parties are listed on the mortgage, you must seek lender approval to remove the moving spouse from the mortgage and from responsibility for payment.
5. If the parties are going to divide a retirement plan, contact the retirement plan before completing and filing this form. Depending on the plan, a QDRO may be necessary.
6. CAUTION: You may want to consult an attorney about your retirement, pension, deferred compensation, 401k plans, and/or benefits. If you do not see an attorney regarding these assets, you risk losing any interest you have in these plans and/or benefits. There are certain documents the plan administrator must have. An attorney can help you prepare these documents.
7. To transfer vehicles or a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.
8. This default judgment may not affect the rights of creditors even when approved by the Court as part of the final decree. The creditor may expect payment from you no matter who is ordered to pay the debt in this default judgment. See an attorney if you have questions about separate and community debts and separate and community property.
9. Consult with an attorney if problems arise later.
